

Exercise Sheet 1 - Solutions

Basic Logic Concepts

1.
 - This is a proposition: The steak is cooked.
 - This is a proposition: I'm cooking the steak.
 - This is not a proposition: Is the steak cooked?
 - This is a proposition: This steak is not cooked.
2. This is not a valid argument: it could be that I have not eaten the steak for another reason.
3. This is a valid argument: if I burn the meal, then I won't be able to eat, and consequently I will get cranky.
4. This is not a valid argument: it could be that we will be eating some fries but not a steak.
